

Towards Equitable Electric Mobility (TEEM) Community of Practice

Purpose of the TEEM Community of Practice: establish a community of advocates to share policy goals, learn together, build capacity, and in the process develop a sense of belonging and mutual commitment towards advancing racial equity and climate change goals in electric mobility. Currently TEEM includes organizations across FOUR states: Colorado, Illinois, North Carolina, and Virginia. We have officially started recruiting new organizations for our second annual cohort.

Eligible Organizations	Time Commitment	Core Activities	Benefits & Outcomes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Equity & environmental justice • Transportation & transit advocacy • Clean energy • Public health • Organizations focused on or interested in equitable electric mobility policy 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • January 2022 - December 2022 • Opportunity to extend beyond 22' • Approximately 1 statewide call per month • Approximately 1 cohort-wide call per month • 2-4 hours per month on strategy advancement • Possible in-person convening in 2022 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Community building • Equity and environmental justice trainings • Technical expertise trainings • Knowledge and best practice sharing • State-specific policy strategizing • Brainstorming for a TEEM National Agenda 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Capacity building funding for equity/EJ orgs • Capacity building & knowledge sharing with mobility & transportation electrification experts • Co-development of equitable & clean mobility tools, resources, and strategies

Questions or interested in joining TEEM:
Email project managers Isa Gaillard and Alexa Diaz at isa.gaillard@greenlining.org and alexad@forthmobility.org

